Please read the following if you intend to designate a corporation as the owner of your Athene Annuity & Life Assurance Company ("Athene Annuity") annuity contract.

Definition of non-natural owner - a non-natural owner is an owner which is not a living person, and would include trusts, estates, corporations, partnerships, and other similar entities.

Section 72(u) of the Internal Revenue Code provides that if an annuity contract is owned by a non-natural owner, the income on the contract shall be treated as ordinary income received or accrued by the owner during the taxable year unless certain exceptions apply.

Athene Annuity is unable to render tax advice. Therefore, we suggest you consult your tax counsel or tax advisor to determine if you qualify for an exception under Section 72(u).

Certification of Beneficial Owner (s)

A Beneficial Owner is an individual who will receive 25% or more of the Trust proceeds. The Beneficial Owner, if any, may or may not be the Trustee or the Grantor of the Trust.

To help with the United States government fight financial crime, federal regulation requires certain financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information about the beneficial owner. Athene may require a valid copy of your identification (i.e. non-expired governmental identification: driver's license, passport, etc) to purchase a contract.

A response below is required: Either check the box or enter information for at least one beneficial owner.

Check here if no individual will receive 25% or more of the Trust proceeds. If checked, go to Section C

To ATHENE ANNUITY:

I understand that, under Section 72(u) of the Internal Revenue Code, a corporation may own an annuity contract and be entitled to tax-deferred status only if certain exceptions apply. Otherwise, the income on the contract shall be treated as ordinary income received or accrued by the owner during the taxable year. I understand that, if the requested annuity does not qualify for an exception under Section 72(u) of the Code, (1) the income on the annuity will NOT be tax deferred, (2) Athene Annuity will not issue a 1099 for the income on the annuity if the owner is a corporation, and (3) the corporation, as owner of the annuity, will be responsible for reporting applicable taxes on the annuity.

I have consulted with my tax advisor regarding the requested annuity. I hereby agree to indemnify and hold Athene Annuity harmless from any adverse tax consequences or other liability that may arise as a result of an incorrect interpretation of Section 72(u).
